

DISCLOSURE ON THE TRANSERABILITY OF CREDIT

Credits earned at Southern Seminary may not transfer to another educational institution. Credits earned at another educational institution may not be accepted by Southern Seminary.

You should obtain confirmation that Southern Seminary will accept any credits you have earned at another educational institution before you execute an enrollment contract or agreement. You should also contact any educational institutions that you may want to transfer credits earned at Southern Seminary to determine if such institutions will accept credits earned at Southern Seminary prior to executing an enrollment contract or agreement.

The ability to transfer credits from Southern Seminary to another educational institutions may be very limited. Your credits may not transfer and you may have to repeat courses previously taken at Southern Seminary if you enroll in another educational institution.

You should never assume that credits will transfer to or from any educational institution. It is highly recommended and you are advised to make certain that you know the transfer of credit policy of Southern Seminary and of any other educational institutions you may in the future want to transfer the credits earned at Southern Seminary before you execute an enrollment contract or agreement.

.....

I certify that I was given a written disclosure about “transferability of credits” prior to executing an enrollment contract or agreement.

---

Signature

Printed name

Date