Financial Aid Information

How do I apply for an SBTS scholarship?

1. Complete the admissions process and be accepted into a degree program before the financial aid deadline. (Only full time, on-campus master's or undergraduate level students are eligible for financial aid.)
2. Once you are accepted, you will receive a personalized SBTS e-campus ID and password. At this time, you are eligible to apply for financial aid using the SBTS Online Financial Aid Application.
3. Complete all parts of the SBTS Online Financial Aid Application (<https://finaid.sbts.edu>):
 - Students entering Fall semester – Aug. 1 of each year (prior to entering)
 - Students entering Spring semester – Jan. 2 of each year (prior to entering)
 - Continuing students – May 15 for Fall Semester, Jan. 2 for Spring Semester

What types of scholarships are awarded?

Scholarships are awarded annually to qualifying students. Students may apply for one of the following scholarships:

- Mission Tuition Discount – This program provides 50% tuition assistance for master-level studies to fulltime missionaries of the IMB and NAMB of the Southern Baptist Convention, plus Journeymen, ISC, and US2 workers. Additional information about BGS tuition discounts for 2+2 and 5/12 participants can be found on-line: <http://www.sbts.edu/current-students/financial-aid/sbts-scholarships/missions-tuition-discounts-and-scholarships/>
- MK Tuition Discount – The program provides 100% tuition assistance for undergraduate and master-level studies to the dependent children of fulltime SBC missionaries of IMB or NAMB.
- Rice-Judson Scholarship – This scholarship is for entering first semester students only. The scholarship is awarded for the first two semesters of master's level studies in the amount of $1250 per semester. Qualifications for this scholarship include a minimum GPA of 3.5 and significant ministry experience.
- General Scholarship – Students enrolled in a master's level or undergraduate degree program are eligible to apply for a general scholarship. Students must demonstrate financial need to qualify for this scholarship. Scholarship awards range from $50 - $800 per semester for master's level students and $100 - $300 per semester for undergraduate level students, and are based upon demonstrated financial need.
- Spouse and Children's Discount Program – Spouses or dependents of full-time students may be eligible for a 50% tuition discount. Qualifying students must apply midway through the semester by submitting the spouse/dependent form to the Office of Accounting. For more information, please contact Accounting Services, 502-897-4128.

What other types of aid may I receive from outside sources?

Southern Seminary does not participate in any federal or state student aid programs involving loans or grants. Generally, students are eligible to receive aid from any source that does not require the school to participate in the federal loan or grant program (Title IV program). Potential sources of outside aid include:

1. State Specific Scholarships
 - View a list at <http://www.sbts.edu/current-students/financial-aid/state-scholarships/>
2. Web-based Scholarship Searches
 - E-campus: <https://E-campus/HelpDesk/ScholarshipSearch> (SBTS login required)
 - Next Student: www.nextstudentloans.com/sse1
 - Brokescholar: www.brokescholar.com

 - College Answer: www.collegeanswer.com
3. Educational Loan Opportunities –
 - Sallie Mae - ask for information on the "Signature" student loan only
 - www.salliemae.com
 - 1-800-695-3317
4. Vocational Rehabilitation – Southern Seminary is an accredited school recognized to provide education for students undergoing vocational rehabilitation. The student is responsible for initiating the process with his/her vocational rehabilitation counselor. Questions concerning vocational rehabilitation should be directed to the Office of Accounting Services, 502-897-4132.
5. Veterans' Benefits – Southern Seminary is an accredited school recognized by the Veterans' Administration. Since eligibility criteria and benefits are different for each veterans' educational assistance program, students should contact the Veterans' Administration Regional Office to determine eligibility prior to enrolling. VA forms should be submitted to the Office of Financial Aid (Norton 150).
