The books in SBTS Journal of Theology Review Library are reserved for professors and Ph.D. students. All books must be signed out using the information sheet below.

Ph.D. students must abide by the following guidelines.

- All books must be signed out using the information sheet.
- If you take a book, you must submit a review within 2 months.
- If you do not submit a review, you must return the book.
- You may only take one book at a time. Once you submit the review, you make request another.
- Students may only review books in their specific concentration. Thus, NT students may not review an OT monograph.
- Only books published in or after 2013 may be reviewed.

Once you have selected a book for review, please refer to the Book Review Guidelines for format instructions and other information. If you have any questions, please contact Dr. Jarvis Williams: jwilliams@sbts.edu.