2014 FOUNDATION RETREAT THEME: OUT OF THIS WORLD
SOMEONE FROM OUR TEAM WILL PROMPTLY CONTACT ALL ATTENDEES TO GATHER ADDITIONAL INFO.
Dear Friends,

I pray this letter finds you well, as we begin this new year. Even though spring is still months away, we are already thinking about the upcoming Foundation Retreat on April 2-5 in Sandestin, Florida. This year’s retreat will undoubtedly live up to its theme: “Out of This World.”

One of the highlights of this year’s retreat will be the opportunity to hear from Col. Jeff Williams, an astronaut who has spent more than a year in space. Col. Williams is preparing to return to space, but has taken time from his training schedule to come share with us at this year’s retreat. There will also be a great array of activities including fishing, shopping, cooking classes and much more. In addition there will also be opportunity to hear from our new provost, Randy Stinson, Dan Dumas and Dr. James Merritt, pastor of Cross Pointe Church in Atlanta, Georgia. I am certain you will not want to miss it.

As you anticipate this event, let me encourage you to give special consideration to those you might invite to share this unique experience with you. If you know someone who might be willing to invest significantly in the next generation of Christian pastors, missionaries and leaders, please send us their information so that we can extend a formal invitation to them. We need more friends who have the capacity to invest generously in the next generation of Christian leaders. For those first-time guests, we will cover all their costs to attend. However, we’re asking all board members and returning guests to cover their own travel costs, and Southern will cover all of your costs once you arrive in Destin. Contributing to the growth of our Foundation Board is one of the most valuable gifts you could give to the mission of Southern Seminary. We thank you for your continued support.

Mary and I look forward to seeing you in April.

Sincerely,

R. Albert Mohler Jr.
President
